THE GRANT WILL BE PAID

Ottawa Separate Schools to Get Their Allowance in the Ordinary Course.

Rosebery May Visit Canada—British Scheme for Colonial Defence.

Toronto, Sept. 7.—The minister of education says the government grant to the Ottawa separate schools will be paid in the ordinary course of business. The reasons for the delay that has occurred is that certain information, on which the grant is based, has not yet been supplied by the school authorities in Ottawa. The department has no reason for withholding the grant.

Nelson Kilmer, a respectable farmer of Malahide, cut his throat this morning while temporarily insane.

It is stated that Lord Rosebery will shortly visit Canada.

Montreal, Sept. 7.—A special cable to the Star says Mr. Chamberlain, Lord Lansdowne and the Duke of Devonshire are considering a scheme of colonial defense. They intend asking the colonies to contribute to the maintenance of the British navy, a portion of which will be at the disposal of the colonies.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 7.—Sculptor Wade, of London, England, has written that the statue of Sir John Macdonald, ordered by the Kingston committee, was shipped on Aug. 13.

Winnipeg, Sept. 7.—Three men stacking grain at Green Ridge received a sever shock by lightning. A team of horses was killed.

POSTOFFICE PILFERING.

Five Thousand Dollars Stolen From Letters—No Clue to Thieves.

Frederickton, N. B., Sept. 7.—Three postoffice robberies came to light here within the past few days, involving $5,655. The first loss reported was that of a letter containing $155, mailed at Cross Creek, parish of Stanley, by a resident of that place, to the bank of Nova Scotia in this city. In the other two cases, letters mailed at St. St. John and Montreal, respectively, to the Bank of British North America, this city, are missing, but the bank men will not give any particulars, and they succeeded in keeping the matter quiet till yesterday.

It has been learned that both letters were mailed on Saturday, and in due course should have been in the Bank of British North America's postoffice box on Monday morning. As Monday was a holiday and the banks were closed, the messenger of the Bank of British North America did not go to the postoffice on that day. The letters were not in the mail received Tuesday morning. The St. John letter contained bonds and coupons to the amount of $4000, while the Montreal letter is said to have contained notes amounting to $1500. Inspector King is holding an investigation, but up to the present time there is no clue to work on.

SOMEONE IS CROOKED.

Charges of Smuggling Against Members of the Newfoundland Government.

St. Johns, Nfld., Sept 7.—It is understood that the government has made strong representations to Canada about the seizures of Newfoundland fishermen on the coast of Labrador. The Press declares that the rights of British subjects have been interfered with. The acts of Howard, the Canadian collector, who made the seizures are denounced. The government urges Canada to remove him. The fishermen will lose thousands of dollars by having their vessels seized.

One letter from Labrador says that Howard drew a revolver on the Newfoundland collector at Bonne Esperance and threatened to shoot him. The same letter says that Howard is crazy. The opposition press charges that five Whiteway members of the assembly are active partners in a smuggling syndicate, whose operations were exposed a few days ago, and challenges disproof. The promised prosecution of the case has been abandoned, the public thinks, because of the exposures which would be made.

SPAIN PLEASES UNCLE SAM.

In the Matter of the Payment of the Moran Claims.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The Spanish government has yielded to the representations of the United States in the manner and place of the payment of the money in satisfaction of the Moran claim, and will pay it in Washington on the date agreed upon, the 15th instant. As the amount is large, the payment will be made in exchange on London. The transaction will be conducted through the state department.

TO BURST THE BIG COMBINE.

The Grand Trunk Road Reported Leaving the Association.

Chicago, Ill., Sept 7.—For some days there has been a rumor afloat to the effect that the Grand Trunk railroad contemplate pulling out of the Central Traffic Association. The alleged reason was that the road would be better able to look after the interests of the shareholders when on the outside than it is now able to do as a member of the Association. Sir. Charles Wilson, president of the G. T. R., arrived in this city to-day and denied in the most positive manner that any such step had been considered by the officials of the Grand Trunk. He had, he declared, heard nothing of the matter until it was mentioned to him in Chicago.

POMERANIAN PROFUSENESS.

Of Loyalty to Wilhelm in Prosperity and Adversity.

Stettin, Sept. 6.—Emperor William reached this city to-day on board the dispatch boat Grillo. Almost simultaneously the Empress arrived by railway train. The streets were thronged with people, and the boats in the harbor were elaborately decorated in honor of the imperial visitors. The Emperor and Empress, and their suites, rode through the principal streets of the city in carriages. The streets were lined with school children, and everywhere the greatest enthusiasm was evinced. At a triumphal arch, which had been erected in front of the Rathhaus, the burgomaster read an address of welcome. Upon arriving at the castle, Emperor William reviewed the guard of honor, and subsequently held a reception which was attended by the civil functionaries.

At a banquet this afternoon Herr von Koeller, president of the provincial diet, proposed a toast to the Emperor and Empress, in which he expressed the loyalty of Pomerania in prosperity and adversity. In conclusion he called for three cheers for their majesties.

SHE FOUND AN ASYLUM.

An Escaped Lunatic Perishes of Cold and Hunger.

Tacoma, Sept. 6.—About 5 o'clock this afternoon a party of surveyors in the employ of the Puget Sound university discovered the body of a woman in the woods about a mile west of the Steilacoom railway, a mile south of the road to Lemon's beach and 1,200 feet from the road that parallels the Sound. The corpse was very much decomposed. The attire was cheap and scanty. It consist of a check waist and a flannel petticoat. The petticoat was pulled down over her hips from the top, exposing a garment of white material. Six feet from the head was an apron. One shoe was off. No headgear was in sight. The feet were on a log, and the body was on the ground, lying on the left side. One hand was bend down and the point of the wrist was projecting through the the rotted flesh. The other hand, the left, had two gold rings on the third finger. The bushes in the vicinity had evidently been tramped down a long time ago.

Superintendent Waughop, of the Stellacoom asylum for the insane, to-night gave information that certainly identifies the body as that of Christine Erossky, aged 50, committed as insane to the asylum from Seattle four years ago. Her mania was mild. While taking an airing with the attendants near the edge of the woods on July 3 last she wandered away and had not been seen since. Search was made through the woods two weeks without finding her. She had no relatives or friends. When arrested at Seattle she was wandering aimlessly about the streets.

American News.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 7.—Wheat started weak on the big northwestern receipts, but reacted moderately on firmness in corn.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 7.—Westminster church, a handsome brown stone structure on Nicollet avenue and Seventh street, in the heart of the retail business part of the city, was gutted by fire early this morning. Loss, $150,000.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 7.—Judge Bellinger to-day sentenced ex-Collector of Customs James Lotan, convicted of conspiracy in illegally landing Chinese, to pay a fine of $8000. Seid Bach, the Chinese merchant who was convicted with Lotan, was fined $5000.

Sullivan, Ind., Sept. 7.—Last night James Ward murdered his father-in-law, Aaron Hunter, and his brother-in-law, John Hunter, cutting off their heads and kicking them around like footballs. The murderer was chased by a mob, and just as he was about to be captured, took his own life.

LOOK OUT FOR SQUALLS

Wiggins Predicts a Repetition This Month of the Great Storms of 1883.

Seized Newfoundland Vessels Released—Wallace Leaves for the West.

Ottawa, Sept. 7.—The Newfoundland vessels seized by Canadian officials on the Labrador coast have been released.

To-day's Gazette contains the regulations defining grades of wheat and other grain under the general inspection act.

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—Prof. E. Stone Wiggins is out with a prediction. He says that owing to the conjunction of the heavenly bodies, there will be a repetition this month of the great storms of 1883. The coming storm will break out on the Pacific ocean on the 17th inst., and will culminate in the Atlantic on the 21st. Both coasts of the American continent will be dangerous for shipping during the period mentioned.

Official communications were exchanged with parties in Newfoundland representing the owners of the vessels seized on the Labrador coast by Captain Howard. As the result of representations from St. Johns, the controller of customs has wired instructions to Captain Howard to release the vessels seized and to report fully the particulars to the department. The acting premier received a cable from the law firm of Morrison and Morine, and in reply Sir Adolphe wired that he had referred the case to the controller of customs and hoped Mr. Wallace's decision would put an end to the whole difficulty.

Controller Wood has declined to rescind the recent order permitting scoured wheat to be mixed with No. 1 hard. The Boards of Trade of Montreal and Toronto approve of the order, but the Dominion Miller's Association do not want it. Mr. Wood says the quality or price of the grain will not be affected by the concession. On the other hand, if mixing is not allowed, thousands of bushels would find their way to the seaboard via Duluth instead of through Canadian territory.

Mr. Kilvert, collector of customs at Hamilton, has declined the position of commissioner at Ottawa. Chief Inspector McMichael is acting commissioner, but will not accept the office permanently, which is regarded as about the hardest situation in the public service.

Controller Wallace and his private secretary left to-day by the Winnipeg train for a tour through Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia.

Sir Adolphe Caron, as acting premier, has ordered an escort of 40 mounted men from the school of cavalry to meet Lieutenant-Governor Patterson.

CHINA SEEKS RUSSIA'S AID

To Quell the Kan Suh Rebellion—Opinions on the Race.

Berlin, Sept. 7.—A special cablegram from Shanghai says the rebellion in the province of Kan Suh is becoming formidable. The insurgents have organized an army, and with it have captured 11 cities. It is reported that the government at Peking meditates calling upon Russia for aid in suppressing the rebellion.

London, Sept. 7.—What is supposed to have been another dynamite bomb was found last night upon the window sill of a police station in Paris.

In a notice which the Times publishes today on the death of William Henry Hurlburt, it is said that he died after a long and agonizing illness, most deeply loved and mourned by his sorrowing wife.

In the course of an article on the international yacht race, the Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says there is less interst in the race at New York to-day than in the Earl of Dunraven's previous attempt to win the America's cup, but despite any unfair or rash criticisms which may be uttered in the excitement of the moment, these competitions tend to unite the two nations more closely. Love of sport for sport's sake is characterist of Americans as well as of English. All gratitude is due Earl Dunraven. If he is beaten again it will only be another incentive to him and others to try again.

T. P. O'Connor's paper, the Sun, in its issue to-day, says that over the claim of Americans to be ranked as sportsmen of the purest water, there hangs a cloud. It is only necessary, the Sun says, to glance over their methods to be satisfied that they are most dangerous opponents.

Buda Pesth, Sept. 6.—Herr Fischer, secretary to the minister of the interior, was found dead to-day in a wood in the outskirts of the city, with a bullet wound in his body. It is supposed he was murdered, as his watch and chain were gone.

Amsterdam, Sept. 6.—Alfred Bingen, of the firm of Bingen Bros., bankers, of Genoa, who recently made a disastrous failure, has been arrested.

Dates May be Changed.

New York, Sept. 6.—The fistic carnival at Dallas, Texas, for October 31 and Nov. 2 and 4, will probably be given ten days earlier or ten days later, as the fall elections come Nov. 5, and many politicians who want to see the fight will be unable to attend on the date fixed. A movement has been started here, at Chicago and other large cities to bring about the change.

WHERE WAS SHE MURDERED?

Facts and Figures to Show Where Blanch Lamont Was Killed.

Women Show a Morbid Interest in the Dismal Details—Durrant Indifferent.

San Francisco, Sept. 6.—The Durrant case took a mathematical turn yesterday. Straight lines and angles, figures and things, photographs, maps and diagrams furnished the subjects for the jury's reflection all morning. They were prominent after recess as well, and divided the time, if not the interest, of the afternoon with Detective Gibson, who is one of the most important figures in the case. He told of the finding of the body of Blanche Lamont in the belfry of Emanuel Baptist church on Easter Sunday morning, and incidentally came in for some pointed and searching cross-questioning at the hands of the defence. Lines and angles and figures ordinarily would have the effect of driving people from any court room. In the Durrant case it is different. The same crowds that have camped about Judge Murphy's court since the trial began, much augmented and constantly growing, flocked to the new city hall early in the morning, jamming and elbowing for position in the same old way, just as eager as on the first occasion for a glimpse of the prisoner. Those who did not get in and those who were not fortunate enough to gain admittance to the court room cooled their heels in the corridors, waiting and hoping for the next time. The women predominated, as is also usual, and seemed to have better luck than their brothers in passing the deputies at the court room doors. Solid phalanxes of them were safely seated when Judge Murphy took his seat on the bench and the day's work was begun, with Officer Russell on the witness stand, pointer in hand, his model of the northwest tower of Emanuel church in front of him.

Then began the flood of figures. It was a dreary two hours, but no one moved to depart. It was the general feeling that behind all the seemingly aimless, uninteresting testimony there must lurk something particularly significant. The general feeling, as the developments showed, was correct. There was and is a significance in the figures which is likely to have a direct bearing on the case. At least that is the theory of the defence, and upon that theory the lawyers worked steadily.

One very important feature of the case seems likely to lend to the questions of to-day their full significance—that is: At what place in Emanuel church was Blanche Lamont murdered? No one seems to know, not even the prosecution. If it really does, it has not yet told. The defence is non-committal. It has nothing to say, but, from the drift of its questions to-day, it seems prepared to fortify itself strongly on this one point.

The general impression of the public is that the girl was murdered on the outside of the door leading to the belfry, and that the dead body was then dragged by the murderer up the three crooked flights of stairs beyond that door to the third landing, stripped and left to decompose. Whether Blanche Lamont met her fate in the gallery, near the belfry entrance, in one of the rear rooms or the library, where Minnie Williams came to her end, is all a mystery. It is almost a certainty that the prosecution has not established that point to its own satisfaction, and it is equally certain that the district attorney considers it the one weak point in his case, but one which he does not think important enough to imperil the outcome. The attorneys for the defence asked a number of questions which tended to indicate an intent to show that Miss Lamont was murdered in one of the lower rooms of the church, and her body carried to the belfry after death. If this fact is established, it would be a strong point in Durrant's favor, from the fact that it would be argued that a man of the prisoner's physique could not carry a body weighing 140 pounds up a long, narrow, winding stairway.

So far as the prosecution in the Durrant case has exposed its hand, it claims to be able to prove Durrant was not at Cooper College between 1 and 2 o'clock on the afternoon of April 3, but was seen on Powell street a few minutes later. There is no proof that he attended Dr. Cheney's lecture except the record taken in the confusion of the class room. He was not in his own seat at that lecture, which was unusual, as every pupil has a special seat assigned to him. A week later he asked a fellow student to be allowed to look at his notes of this lecture, that he might be prepared for an examination. No one saw him at the lecture, and he was marked present once before when he did not attend.

When the judge and jury and Durrant passed up Bartlett street to visit Emanuel church, Mrs. Leak, the woman who says she saw Durrant enter the church with Blanche Lamont, sat at her window. As the procession passed the house on the other side of the street she picked out Durrant and District Attorney Barnes, which shows that her eyesight is good.

This morning the crowd struggling for admission was greater than ever. Two lines of policemen guarded the corridors, and prevented anyone entering the corridor approaching the court room except jurors, attorneys, newspaper men and citizens having permits from the sheriff. These speedily occupied the chairs and then no more spectators were admitted. The earlier part of the session was consumed in a long wrangle between attorneys for the prosecution and defence about the accuracy of the diagrams of Emanuel church, which the prosecution offered as exhibits to facilitate examination of witnesses. The defence claimed the diagrams were slightly inaccurate. Finally the court allowed the introduction of the exhibits, saying their accuracy could be determined by actual measurements to be taken later.

After a lengthy examination of Policeman Russell as to the interior of Emanuel church the prosecution called Detective Gibson, who described the finding of Blanche Lamont's body in the belfry of Emanuel church. There was nothing new in his testimony. The trial will go on to-morrow.

HE WAS TEMPTED AND FELL.

This Is a Theological Student's Excuse for Deserting His Wife.

Watertown, N. Y., Sept. 6.—John P. Wilson, of Auburn, N. Y., theological student, who came from Manitoba, and was filling the pulpit of the Brownsville Presbyterian church, and courting a Brownsville girl, and whose wife appeared here demanding his arrest for her abandonment and non-support, was found hiding in a friend's house at Sackett's harbor last night.

To-day the attorneys are arguing where he shall be tried. Wilson admits he was married in Syracuse on June 1, but claims that he married under compulsion; that by her wiles and fascinations his wife led him into wrong doing, and he was duped into marrying her. The girl's maiden name was Elizabeth Nagell, and her mother and two sisters live in Rochester. She lives in Auburn with a half sister, and Wilson boarded there.

THE SOLIDARITY OF LABOR.

All to Work for the Attainment of a Common Object.

Cardiff, Wales, Sept. 6.—Samuel Gompers and P. J. McGuire who represented the United States in the Trades' Union Congress were given a hearty re-President Jenkins in welcoming the American delegates, said that although geographically divided, the workers of America, Great Britain and Ireland are united on all important questions pointing to their elevation. Mr. Gompers replying to the address of President Jenkins, spoke of the solidarity of feeling and sympathy existing among the trades unions of the countries represented in this congress. He said they were of one blood and had a common heritage. He looked forward to the day when all workers speaking the English language would unite with the workers of all countries struggling onward to the attainment of that end for which the whole past has been a perpetual endeavor, with an intensity of purpose that would ensure the accomplishment of great results. Gompers said he believed the British Trades Union Congress and the American Federation of Labor would compare favorably with the British parliament or the American congress.

THE BOGGS BANK SCANDAL.

Two Important Books Missing—The President Has Left Town.

Tacoma, Sept. 6.—The failure and assignment of the Bank of Tacoma, successor to the Tacoma Trust and Savings Bank, was brought into court to-day on the suit of Chris Olson. Olson had $143 on deposit in the latter bank when the former bank assumed its liabilities. He asks to have E. S. Alexander, the assignee of the Bank of Tacoma, removed, a receiver appointed, and the assets of the two banks separated. Olson also alleges fraud in the making of the assignment. The case brought out a strong array of legal talent.

A sensation was caused when the first witness, Frank Carpenter, formerly teller, and later secretary of the bank, made the statement that the ledger and a journal of the old bank had disappeared. These volumes are of much importance. Without them nothing definite can be learned of the condition of the bank. Carpenter was closely questioned, but nothing could be learned of the whereabouts of the books. He stated that he had seen them up to within a few days ago, since which time diligent search had failed to locate them. The only persons having access to the vault where the books were kept were Mr. Molvig, the bookkeeper, Mr. Alexander, the assignee, Mr. Allen, the president, and the witness.

Mr. Allen is reported to have left for Chicago last Friday night, accompanied by his family, but whether the books went with him is not ascertainable.

This is not the first time books of this institution have been known to disappear. A year ago Judge Campbell, in trying the case of the Commercial Bank against Chilberg obtained an order from Judge Stallcup compelling President Allen, of the bank, to produce the books of the Imperial Trust and Loan Company, the predecessor of the Tacoma Trust and Savings Company and the Bank of Tacoma, but two days were consumed upon one excuse or another, until a peremptory order to bring the books in at 1 o'clock in the afternoon was made by the court. One o'clock came, and 2 o'clock, and no books and no Mr. Allen. The court then ordered the sheriff to go down and bring Mr. Allen before him. Mr. Allen came, and explained with a very red face that he had been unable to find them, and he supposed Mr. Grattan Wheeler, the cashier of the bank, had made some disposition of the books before leaving for New York, but just what he had done with them was unknown.

N. C. Richards, the first secretary of the company, and J. W. Berry, one of the directors of the bank, were examined. Their testimony mainly touched the transfer from the old bank to the Bank of Tacoma. The hearing will be continued to-morrow.

Senor Palma Appeals for Better Treatment of the Cuban Patriots.

New York, Sept. 6.—Tomas Estrada Palma, president of the Cuban revolutionary junta, has issued an address on the recent arrest of Cubans at Penn's Grove, N. J., using the incident as the basis for a plea to the United States government for recognition of the Cuban insurgents as belligerents. The address in part is as follows: "I consider it a misfortune that the United States felt obliged under the excuse of international law to tolerate such repugnant scenes such as took place at Penn's Grove on Friday, Aug. 30, when a score of Cuban patriots, most of them youths of the best families, doctors, lawyers, etc., were chased like a band of robbers, caught and imprisoned, for the alleged crime of intending to start for Cuba to join those who were fighting for the same cause for which the American colonies fought here in the last century. It should be remembered that if at that time Lafayette and his gallant companions had been chased, captured and imprisoned for coming to join the American revolutionists; if the French government, instead of effectually helping the American government, should have interpreted the laws of neutrality as the government of the United States does now, it is likely the birth of the first republic in the world of Columbus would have taken place much later, if at all, since a great many of the inhabitants of the thirteen colonies in the rebellion did not favor the cause of independence. But the court of Louis XVI., far from using his public officers and gendarmes to serve Great Britain, upheld openly sincerely and effectually the cause of the American rebels. France, in spite of being so near England and so far from America, had never consented, with regard to the British colonists, to what unhappily occurs to-day in the United States with Cuban separatists here, so far from Spain and so near to Cuba."

E. corner of said section; thence running westerly along the northern boundary of said section 300 links, thence south 475 links, thence easterly to the eastern boundary of said section, 351 links; thence northward along the said boundary to the point of beginning, 562 links.

Also all that piece or parcel of land forming another portion of Section XXXI., Esquimalt District, bounded as follows, viz.: On the west by the last described piece of land known as Buckley's Orchard, on the south by a line drawn from the south easterly corner of said last described piece to the Craigflower road and parallel to the northern boundary of the said Section XXXI., to the eastward by the Craigflower road, and to the northward by the northern boundary of said Section XXXI.

AN ERA OF PROSPERITY

Has Dawned Upon the Business World, Says Chauncey M. Depew.

Review of the Week's Business in the Money and Stock Market.

London, Sept. 6.—Chauncey M. Depew, who has just arrived in London, talked in a characteristic way of his experiences, as he sat in a room in the Savoy hotel to-night. Regarding his trip Mr. Depew said: "I had the usual good time at Hamburg, where I dined twice with the Prince of Wales. From there I went to Lourdes and saw a miracle, at least they called it a miracle. I made quite a lengthy tour also in Germany, France and Belgium.

There is a great improvement in business manifest in all three of these countries, and likewise in England. The whole world will experience an era of prosperity in the next five or six years, the United States especially. Indeed, it has already started. We have just reaped the greatest crops in our history. Wages are voluntarily being increased, and our securities are increasing in value and being sought by foreign investors. I find that Europe is rapidly regaining confidence in American securities."

Mr. Depew was asked what his observation showed to be the status of the Irish question, to which he replied: "I think the Conservatives who have come into power in England will give Ireland home rule in some shape, probably just as good as the Liberals would have given.

New York, Sept. 6.—The Evening Post's special London cablegram says: Investment business was brisk in the stock market to-day, but speculative operations were restrained by the nearness of the settlement. Americans were dull and featureless. Mercantile troubles are reported in Genoa, but money here is not implicated to any extent.

R. G. Dunn & Co.'s review says:—There is no real cessation in business. Gains, which are recognized as temporary, are vanishing, but there remains a decided increase over last year at this date, although prices were 8.8 per cent. lower than a year ago. It needs no keen observer to see that the reaction against rapid advance of prices is strong. Hides were the first to rise, but a decided break has come; coke was suddenly raised to $1.40, but has recently sold at $1.10; wheat jumped over 20 cents to 84, but is now slow of sale at about 65; wool was late in rising, but has lost about an eighth of a cent in average prices within the past fortnight. Iron still rises, the miners' strike having hindered shipments of ore, but with troops guarding, the ore begins to go out. Cotton is strong, but has paused. The general tendency to curtail purchases, where prices have not advanced, grows clearer in boots and shoes, in wool and some products of iron. The combinations have again advanced prices of bar iron $2 per ton and of wire nails 20 cents per keg; while bessimer is quoted at 17.40 at Pittsburg, and eastern manufacturers, from imported ore, have again commenced to supply western customers. Special causes are the wholly unprecedented bridge building, the continued demand for buildings in cities, and heavy ship building on the lakes. Consumption already hesitates, and railroads have not much expanded their demand for rails. Copper is already a shade weaker, with large supplies. Tin with 26,390 tons in visible stock, domestic and foreign, and lead with sales of 1500 tons domestic. In the boot and shoe business many shops are discharging hands, and in woolen manufactures works are closing for want of orders. Sales of wool, which averaged over ten million pounds per week when great speculation stocks were being taken, have shrunk to 5,380,500 for the week, against 7,570,300 for the same week for 1893. The brightest feature in all the horizon is the certainty that the crop of corn will be enormous. Frosts now can only affect a small fraction, and the surplus will go into the manufacture of meats, because at 35 7-8 cents at New York, nearly four cents lower than a week ago, there is no other profitable use for the corn. The latest reports of wheat threshing induced the best western judges to raise their estimates of the yield over 40,000,000; with 450,000,000 added to 75,000,000 bushels brought over, the supply will exceed all possible demands. The price has again dropped about three cents, and with western receipts of 4,550,104 bushels against 5,564,210 last year, the western farmer sells again to discover that holding back wheat is a losing business. Atlantic reports have been only 1,647,352 bushels, flour included, against 2,799,860 last week. Pacific shipments continue large. The one farm product which has been strong, because certainly short in yield, rose from 8.19 cents for spot cotton last week, to 8.25 on Tuesday, but has since been weak in spite of concerted official statements that the decrease is 33 per cent in some states, and 27 per cent in Texas. The public observes much organized and skilled labor in the seaports, and also sees what many speculators refuse to see, the 3,000,000 bales of old American brought over. It is earnestly hoped that southern agriculture has not sustained so great calamity.

Failures for the week have been 186 in the United States, against 219 last year; and in Canada 38, against 47 last year.

Bradstreets' reports the total bank clearings for the Dominion of Canada: Montreal, $9,476,662, increase 12 per cent.; Toronto, $7,028,092, increase 27 per cent.; Halifax, $940,194, decrease 8.9; Winnipeg, $798,483, increase 13.7; Hamilton, $542,374, decrease 19; totals, $16,785,805, increase 13.5.

The stock market to-day showed a considerable falling off in point of activity as compared with Thursday, but the distribution of business was relatively good. Fractionally higher quotations for American securities in the London market induced firmness at the opening here and fractional advances occurred in the initial dealings. The market, however, developed weakness at an early stage, owing to expectations of large exports of gold, which had been foreshadowed the previous day. After midday the tone of the general market strengthened, with Chicago gas, Lackawanna and Tennessee coal the features at material gains. St. Paul & Omaha preferred rose 3 per cent. in the late speculation; dealings were irregular, with marked pressure against sugar, which, in the face of the declaration of the regular quarterly dividends, and the further advance in domestic refined sugar, suffered a reaction of 1 7-8 per cent. The recovery was inconsiderable. The closing was dull and irregular

Bradstreets' state of trade report says: The fall trade at Toronto has opened quite satisfactorily, the volume of orders placed, particularly on millinery, being ahead of last year. Crops in the province of Quebec are fairly good. Country merchants have asked for renewals rather more frequently than expected. Montreal reports general trade somewhat behind expectations. Nova Scotia merchants are buying very conservatively. In New Brunswick crop prospects are fair. There are thirty-three business failures reported from the Dominion of Canada this week, against forty-two last week, 29 in the week a year ago, and 27 two years ago.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the World's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

THE PASTOR'S WIFE.

AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW WITH MRS. (REV.) F. B. STRATTON.

Threatened With Paralysis—Weak, Emaciated and Unable to Stand Fatigue—Pink Pills Restore Her Health.

From the Napanee Beaver.

The Rev. F. B. Stratton, of Selby, is one of the best known ministers in Bay of Quinte conference, of which body he is the president. During the two years Mr. Stratton has been stationed at Selby, both he and Mrs. Stratton have won hosts of friends among all classes for their unassuming and sincere Christian work. Some time ago Mrs. Stratton was attacked with partial paralysis, and her restoration having been attributed to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a reporter of the Beaver was sent to interview her. In reply to the reporter's question Mrs. Stratton said that she had been greatly benefited by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and was perfectly willing to give her experience that those similarly afflicted might be benefited. Mrs. Stratton said that before moving to Selby she had been greatly troubled by a numbness coming over her sides and arms (partial paralysis) which, when she moved, felt as though hundreds of needles were sticking in the flesh. For over a year she had been troubled in this way, with occasionally a dizzy spell. She was becoming emaciated and easily fatigued and was unable to get sleep from this cause. The trouble seemed to be worse at night time. Mr. Stratton had become greatly alarmed at her bad state of health, and it was feared that complete paralysis would ensue as Mrs. Stratton's mother, the late Mrs. Weaver, of Ingersoll, had been similarly stricken at about the same age. Knowing a young lady in Trenton, where Mr. Stratton had been previously stationed, who had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, it was determined to give them a fair trial. When Mrs. Stratton began using the Pink Pills she was very thin and her system badly run down, but after taking the pills for a time, all symptoms of paralysis disappeared, and she found her health and strength renewed and her weight increased. Mrs. Stratton is about 50 years of age, and a more healthy, robust, and younger looking lady is seldom seen at that age.

In reply to the reporter's inquiry as to what Pink Pills had done for his wife, Mr. Stratton said, "Look at her, look at her, doesn't she show it," and the reporter could not but admit the truth of the statement.

These pills are a positive cure for all troubles arising from a vitiated condition of the blood or a shattered nervous system. Sold by all dealers or by mail from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y., at 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50. There are numerous imitations and substitutes against which the public is cautioned.

THE FRAKER CASE.

Full Identification of the Doctor—Five Counts Against Him.

Richmond, Mo., Sept. 6.—Dr. Fraker, in jail here on a charge of attempting to defraud insurance companies was recognized to-day by a score of people. The recognition was mutual, Dr. Fraker calling several by name and conversing with them. The information leading to the arrest and incarceration of Fraker has been filed before Justice McCurston, of this city. There are five counts in the information, the aggregate penalty being thirty-five years in the penitentiary. It is believed the defense will waive examination and leave the doctor to be bound over to await the action of the grand jury, which meets in October. In case the doctor is released on bail, the bonds, it is said, will be at least $20,000. If an indictment is found the trial may come off at the October term of the Ray county circuit court.

ONLY ONE STEP.

The proceedings leading to the arrest of Messrs. Prevost and Fulding have been characterized by a commendable amount of energy and promptitude, and have so far indicated a desire on the part of the authorities to repair the injury the public interest has suffered. This is all the more satisfactory because of the suspicion which many people at one time entertained that any attempt made to capture the men charged with wrongdoing would be but half-hearted or worse. But care in arresting and prosecuting the accused officials will not end the government's duty in the premises, nor will it remove from the government all blame for what wrong has been commited. No sensible man can be found to say that it was right to leave large sums of public money in the personal charge of officials. It was not right that the public property should be placed in danger, nor was it right that officials should have been thus submitted to temptation. Even before the cases of the two men now under arrest are off their hands the government should proceed to set their house to rights in this regard. If they have any doubts as to how to proceed in order to secure safety of public funds they can easily find guidance by looking into the methods of business men and private corporations. Defalcations in private business there are, but it is safe to say that no business firm or corporation would allow the custodian of its cash such latitude as was given in the case of these two registrars.

MINING LAW CONFUSION.

From reports of cases in court and from coments thereon which appear in the inland newspapers it must be concluded that the mining laws are much in need of clearing up. Unfortunately there is only to much reason to suppose that if the asembly did again essay the task of amendment it would only make "confusion worse confounded," for that has been the result of efforts in this direction in the past. Within the past few weeks two cases have been heard in the county court, one in Kootenay and the other in Kettle River district, which hinged on two different points. In the Kootenay case Judge Spinks was called upon to decide wherein lies the "root of title" to a mining claim. In rendering judgment he gave a review of the enactments bearing on this point which must convince any person that a rare hash was made of the law by our worthy legislators. Repeals and re-enactments and court precedents have left the matter in so much confusion that a plain working miner must be excused if he fails to understand his position. That state of affairs should not have been allowed to come about. In the other case, at Kettle River, Judge Spinks was called upon to decide as to the validity of a location. Prospector number one located a claim, but abandoned it without recording, some thirteen days after location. Prospector number two then relocated it, using his predecessor's posts. Number three came along after fifteen days were up and also tried a location on the same claim. He appeared as plaintiff, claiming possession on two grounds, namely, that no re-location can be made until fifteen days have expired, and that number two was wrong in using number one's posts. The judge decided against him, ruling that a claim may be re-staked within fifteen days, providing the discoverer fully signifies his intention of abandonment, and that though not strictly permissible, it is not illegal to use posts that have been made use of by a former proprietor. The Midway Advance in contemplating the law's confusion waxes indignant and says:—

"Although it will hardly help to sooth the ruffled feelings of the individuals who are unfortunate enough to be the losers in lawsuits of this nature, to be patted on the back and assured that by contesting these technicalities of the Mineral Act they are acting as public benefactors, nevertheless such is the truth; the airing of these questions may possibly save a great deal of expensive litigation in the future; for when, once these difficult points of that wonderfully difficult and intricate piece of legislative machinery, the present Mineral Act, the outcome of the united wisdom and intelligence of men who, although more or less ignorant in mining matters, are still not wanting in ingenuity, for unaccomplished in the difficult art of the construction of puzzles and double acrostics, is somewhat explained, a repetition of the litigious state of affairs which, we learn, is to be found at Trail Creek, will be less likely to occur here."

THE TACOMA ARRIVES.

She Had an Uneventful Trip Across the Pacific.

The Northern Pacific liner Tacoma, Capt. Crawford, arrived here at 5 o'clock last evening, and after a couple of hours' stay at Williams Head quarantine station, came up to the Outer wharf. The trip from Yokohama was uneventful. Only one sail, that of a sealer heading this way being sighted. Purser Campbell furnished the following trip report: "Left Yokohama on the 20th August, and for first two or three days had heavy squalls and head seas, after which the weather cleared up and and remained fine during the rest of the voyage. The 180th meridian was crossed on the 28th ult., and Race Rocks was rounded at 4:30 p.m. yesterday."

John Campbell succeeded James Donaldson as purser, when the latter was sent to jail for embezzlement. The officers of the ship generally feel very badly over the disgrace of their comrade.

The Tacoma brought a big cargo of freight, made up largely of tea. The latter was stored everywhere, even to the staterooms in the cabin. There was a shipment of 1000 bales of silk for New York, and also 90 casks of sealskins for Victoria. The ship brought 28 steerage passengers and 2 cabin passengers.

The ship brought few late advices as she sailed before the Empress of India. Amon her news budget the following is fresh:

Before the end of this year a residence will be erected in Formosa—either at Tai-wan or Tai-peh, for the use of the Emperor of Japan, who proposes to visit the latest addition to his territory. The journey will not take place until hostilities are at an end.

The governments of Japan and Spain executed an agreement on August 7th, recognizing the centre of the navigable portion of Bashee strait as the boundary between their respective possessions in the Pacific; all islands above to belong to Japan, and all below to Spain.

The secret Chinese society of "Vegetarians," which has gained an infamous notoriety from the massacre of English missionaries by its members, is a recent organization, having originated during the war. It numbers three thousand companions, the majority of whom belong to the most degraded social class, although the leaders are said to be men of intelligence as well as audacity. They are in greater strength at Ku Chen, where the civil authorities are powerless to oppose their lawless aggressions. On several occasions they have exacted tribute from the local mandarins and the wealthy citizens are required to contribute regularly to their support. Their enmity toward foreigners has been undisguised for the past six months.

THE AMERICA'S CUP HISTORY.

How This Trophy, Now So Famous, Came Into Existence.

New York Sept. 6.—The history of the way there came to be an American cup is this. In 1851 the schooner America went to Europe and won the cup, which ever since has borne that name. The cup was a prize given in the Royal squadron regatta at Cowes. A Yankee yacht contested against fourteen competitors, several larger than herself, but none rigged as she was. It is related that when the America hove in sight at the finish, Her Majesty, the Queen, who was a spectator, turning to her attendant, asked "Who wins?" "The America, Your Majesty," replied the lord chamberlain. "And who is second?" continued the Queen, trying to conceal her chagrin. "Alas, Your Majesty," the chamberlain replied, "there is no second."

The America afterwards sailed in a match with the 100-ton schooner Titania in a strong breeze, and beat her by more than an hour.

Commodore Stevens could not induce anybody else to meet him, and he finally sold the yacht to Lord Delaneare for $5000. Six years later the surviving members of the syndicate that built the America presented the cup which she had won from the British, to the New York Yacht club, in whose hands it has since remained as a trophy for which any country may challenge, but which none yet has been able to win.

The contests that have issued are briefly recapitulated thus: In 1870 the Magic beat the Cambria. In 1871 the Columbia and Sappho beat the Livenia, four out of five. In 1876 the Madeline beat the Canadian schooner Countess of Dufferin, of Belleville, Ont. In 1881 the Mischief and Gracie beat the Canadian centre-board sloop Atlanta. In 1885 the Puritan beat the Genesta. In 1886 the Mayflower beat the Galatea. In 1887 the Volunteer beat the Thistle. In 1893 the Vigilant beat Valkyrie II.

PREVOST'S DEFALCATIONS.

Information Under Which the Ex-Registrar Will Be Tried.

The two informations read to J. C. Prevost at the preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon have been materially altered since that time. The charges to which he will have to answer when the hearing is resumed on Tuesday are:

"That James Charles Prevost on or about the 22nd day of December, 1893, at the city of Victoria, in the county and province aforesaid, being then and there employed in the service of Her Majesty, and being then and there by virtue of his said employment in possession of certain moneys the property of Her Majesty, to the amount of $3,154.49, did unlawfully steal the said moneys."

And "that James Charles Prevost on the 21st day of January, 1895, at the city of Victoria, being then and there employed in the service of Her Majesty, and being then and there by virtue of his said employment in possession of certain moneys, the property of Her Majesty, to the amount of $824, did unlawfully steal the said moneys."

It will be seen that the first charge goes back to 1893, so that it is probable that the defalcations will probably total a good round sum, some people going so far as to place the amount between thirty and fifty thousand dollars.

Auditor Goepel has issued the following notice:

"All parties interested in funds in the Supreme Court at Victoria, or in estates for which James Charles Prevost was acting as administrator or trustee, and in respect of which any balances may be due by him, are requested to supply full particulars, by letter, to W. J. Goepel, at the Supreme Court, Victoria."

BACK TO HIS TRIAL.

Corporal Otis Arrives With a Warrant for Christopher Moody's Arrest.

Corporal Otis, of the Mounted Police, arrived here last evening on the steamer Charmer with a warrant for the arrest of Christopher Moody, the Calgary jeweler, taken in charge here on Tuesday for stealing.

Mr. Otis is established at Banff and being nearest to the coast was ordered out by Inspector Woods to serve the warrant. He is not familiar with all the facts of the offense alleged against Moody, but says he is wanted for the theft of three small diamonds, a gold watch and a gold pin. The valuation placed on the diamond is only $30, while that on the watch is $35. The articles belonged to two of Moody's former patrons. Mr. Otis may leave in the morning with his prisoner, but it is barely possible that he may be delayed until Monday night. Moody will not offer any resistance to going back.

The unfortunate wife of Moody has been making vain efforts to secure the release of her husband. She appealed to Mayor Teague and others, but there was nothing in that direction that could be done for her. She and her children are said to be in destitute circumstances.

JAMES BAY REGATTA.

Races in Progress—Events So Far as They Have Been Decided.

The James Bay Athletic Association is holding its annual regatta in the harbor this afternoon. The weather was threatening and the lacrosse match was a counter attraction, so the attendance was not so large as the event deserved. Still the club house was well filled and the shores and bridge were lined with people.

The club fours came first. The Geiger crew beat the Austin crew by half a length; time 4:03 1-5. It was a very pretty race. The O'Sullivan crew beat the Middleton crew easily, in 4:18. The Wilson crew did likewise with the Jackson crew, in 4:40. The Scott crew beat the Bailey crew by 3 lengths. Time not given.

The junior single race was being rowed at 4 o'clock.

London, Ont., Sept. 7.—The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada closed its annual session yesterday. It is opposed to Chinese labor when entering into competition with white labor; favors the abolition of the offices of Governor-General and Lieutenant-Governor; it advocates an alien labor law, and that all prison-made goods be stamped; and declared itself favorable to single tax. After an exciting debate it decided that Socialists should be admitted to the Dominion congress. A resolution will be sent to Eugene V. Debs, expressing admiration for his stand, and denouncing his imprisonment.

—In their freight and shipping report for August, R. P. Rithet & Co., limited, say: "Since the last issue of our circular there has been a marked change in the market, and freights are down all round, rates for grain carriers on the spot having dropped fully 7 shillings per ton within the month. Although lumber freights have not shared to anything like the same extent, in that market also the position is unfavorable and the tone dull and weak. The only feature deserving special notice is the continuous development of the lumber trade with South Africa, a trade that appears to be fairly divided between steamers and sailing vessels. In the coal trade, too, steam is gradually taking the place of sail, one result of which will no doubt be to add to the lumber fleet most of the vessels supplanted."

—The following criticism of "Too Much Johnson, which is to be presented at the Victoria Theatre to-night, is from the San Francisco Chronicle of a late date: "For once a promised funny play is quite as funny as we have been led to expect. "Too Much Johnson" lives up to its advance man's paragraphs, and we can agree with the New York critics that Mr. Gillette's farce is bright, snappy and original. While the main idea, that of a jealous husband following up a wife's flirtation, is not new, every, effect, suggestion, surrounding, scene and situation is as much out of the common or conventional as could be conceived by an unusually fertile imagination. Mr. Gillette has elaborated or manufactured a series of thoroughly amusing situations for Billings. About him all the other characters revolve, and right merrily does he keep them moving. Billings himself, the irate Frenchman and the real Johnson are the three prominent roles.

FATAL SHOOTING ACCIDENT

Thomas Williams Accidentally Shot Yesterday by William Rountree.

A Coroner's Inquest Being Held at Prospect Lake This Afternoon.

Officer McKenna returned last evening from Prospect lake, where he had been sent early in the afternoon to investigate a report regarding an accidental shooting. He found that Thomas Williams, a contractor, who resides at 25 North Park street, had been accidentally shot and instantly killed by William Rountree. Both were staying with Frank Campbell, in the latter's cabin at Prospect Lake. They started out hunting yesterday morning, each armed with a Winchester rifle. Shortly after leaving the cabin they branched off from one another, Williams going to the left. They were soon hidden from each other's view by a clump of bushes. Rountree saw a deer and raising his rifle fired. An awful cry followed and Rountree rushing to where the sound came from found his companion lying on the ground with a wound in the neck from which blood was flowing. Mr. Campbell, who had also heard the cry, reached Williams' side at the same time as Rountree. An examination soon showed that the man was dead. The ball had entered the neck just above the shoulder, and had apparently taken a downward course and lodged in the chest.

Williams has resided in Victoria for many years. He was fifty-five years of age. Three daughters survive him.

On account of the recent resignation of Coroner Hasell, and the fact that no one had been appointed in his place, the inquest which was to have been held this morning, has been postponed until the evening. The body will be brought to town and the inquest held here.

THE WEST COAST.

Shooting Accident at Clayoquot—Alberni Mines.

N. Fayet, of Clayoquot, was brought to this city by the steamer Princess Louise this afternoon for treatment at the hospital. He is the victim of a very painful shooting accident. He and a friend had returned home from a hunt. Fayet picked up his shot gun by the barrels near the muzzle and in drawing it out of the boat the triggers caught and the gun went off. The charge tore away part of his hand and lodged in his arm near the elbow.

The passengers on the Louise report that the mining excitement at Alberni gives no signs of abating.

The passengers from West coast points are: Captain Irving, Captain Lewis, H. Clay, Thomas Burnes, A. T. Clare, Col. Hamilton, Mrs. McDougall, T. Winger, P. Jacobsen, Mrs. Jacobsen, jA. Vollen, P. Vollen, B. Winger, H. Langley, P. Fayet, N. Fayet, S. Spain, Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Hastie, E. Schultze, J. Brithe and R. McKinley.

—Amongst the Anglican congregations in the city the first to hold their Harvest Festival this year will be St. Barnabas church, Cook street. It will be held on Thursday, September 20, and both clergy, choir and parishoners are doing their utmost to make the festival worthy of its object. To friends within the parish and to well wishers generally, a warm welcome is extended. Besides a special preacher and extensive decorations, the choir have for some time past been rehearsing a new choral service for the occasion, therefore, naturally a large congregation is expected. At St. Barnabas all seats are free, and thus the inconveniences that generally occur on such occasions in other churches, are avoided.

—J. E. Macrae, agent here for the Northern Pacific Steamship Co., left for the Sound on the steamship Tacoma this morning. He departed a bachelor, but will return a benedict, for on Wednesday next, at St. Paul's church, Tacoma, he will be united in marriage to Miss Brown, of Glasgow, Scotland. Miss Brown will reach Tacoma that day from her home. After the ceremony they will leave on a short trip, and it will be in the neighborhood of three weeks before they reach Victoria.

—The steamer Barbara Boscowitz arrived at Nanaimo from the north this morning and proceeded to Vancouver, where she will discharge part of her cargo of salmon. Among the passengers who come down were: H. A. Munn, Rev. Hogan and wife, of Metlakathla; Rev. Walker, of Cape Mudge; Mr. Stapleton, Inverness; Fisheries Inspector Rocksbury and R. Kermode.

—The reward of $250 offered by the provincial government for information that would lead to the arrest of J. C. Prevost has been paid. Mr. K. Y. Church, of Dungeness, who gave the information upon which Officer McKenna worked was paid $150 and a Nanaimo man who supplied the information which caused Sergeant Langley to go to Roche Harbor, was paid $100.

—There was a meeting of the Victoria Medical-Chirurgical Society last evening, at which some interesting papers on timely subjects were read, and which elicited some practical discussion and exchange of views.

—Owing to the uncertain state of the weather the band concert at Mount Baker Hotel to-night is postponed till next Wednesday.

WHAT THINK YE ALL OF IT?

Well and Strong After Half a Century of Suffering!

The Cure is a Wonderful One

Wrought by Paine's Celery Compound,
The Great Strength and Health-Giver.

MRS. PARSONS.

The memory of the great discoverer of Paine's Celery Compound will ever be sacred to the thousands who have been wonderfully delivered from disease and suffering. The united efforts of this world's medical men will never equal the work, the mighty life-saving results, that have come to sufferers through the virtues of Paine's Celery Compound.

The most difficult, most distressing, and the seemingly hard and incurable cases, are successfully cured by the great medicine. There is no reason why any man or woman should dispair and give up hope, while they can procure the medicine that drives away disease.

Strong and incontrovertible proof—testimony from one who suffered for over fifty years—will give hope and inspiration to many of Canada's sufferers who, up to the present, have been unsuccessful with physicians and the common advertised medicines of the day.

The marvellous and speedy cure of Mrs. A. R. Pasons, of Sutton, P.Q., has created a wonderful sensation in that special section of the Eastern Townships. Professional men, business men, and farmers, have discussed the subject, and to-day Paine's Celery Compound has a reputation and a fame in the district that no other medicine ever possessed.

Mrs. Parsons writes very briefly, but to the point; she says:—

"I am delighted to send my testimony regarding your most valuable medicine, Paine's Celery Compound!!

"Some time ago I had Grippe, which left me so lame and weak, that for six months I could not get up without help. I told my husband that nothing else but Paine's Celery Compound could help me, after other medicines and doctors had failed.

"After taking several bottles of Paine's Celery Compound, I feel that I am cured; I can now walk and go up and down stairs with ease, and do all my housework. Under the blessing of God and your Paine's Celery Compound, I am now well."

SOUTHERN PACIFIC AFFAIRS.

Large Sums Paid the Company's Attorneys for "Incidental Expenses."

San Francisco, Sept. 6.—At the meeting of the state railroad commission to-day Chairman Larue insisted on an answer to his question of yesterday regarding the salary paid to C. P. Huntington. Auditor Lansing said Huntington received $10,000 annually as compensation from all the roads of which he is president. Witness said all expenses had been included in the statement he had made to the commission. When asked the amount of money expended for political purposes, Attorney Martin, for the company, objected. The question was insisted upon, and witness did not know. Under the severe examination of Larue Lansing admitted that the late W. W. Stow had been in the employment of the company. He said Stow was paid as an attorney. When Stow made large drafts on the company Lansing did not know what the money was for. He said the railroad company kept no parliamentary or legislative fund that he knew of, but amounts might be drawn for the use of attorneys and for their incidental expenses. Lansing finally said he despised newspapers and despised the opinion of the press. He knew nothing about the alleged railroad corruption funds.

HE BROKE THE COMMANDMENT

"Thou Shalt Not Kill." Which he Was Ordained to Preach.

Danville, Ind., Sept. 6.—Rev. Wm. F. Hinshaw was arraigned in court yesterday, charged with the murder of his wife Theresa, on the night of January 3 at Belleville. As the defendant, accompanied by his family, was brought into court, great excitement prevailed, and mutterings of "There goes a coward!" and kindred expressions of hatred were heard. The defendant's counsel filed a motion to quash the indictment, which was overruled. The defendant entered a plea of not guilty. The entire day was consumed in an attempt to secure a jury. The Hinshaw homicide was the most sensational in the criminal history of the state. He was pastor of the leading Methodist church at Belleville and connected with the wealthiest family in the city, and is accused of murdering his wife because of an attachment for Allie Ferre, the wealthiest and prettiest girl in the vicinity. His accuser is Detective H. C. Webster, of Indianapolis, who worked for the $4,000 reward offered for the arrest of the murderer.

NANAIMO.

Nanaimo, Sept. 7.—Mr. H. Mahrer is endeavoring to promote a scheme to run excursions from Vancouver to this city, after the opera house at Vancouver has been closed, to enable the Vancouver people to witness the different performances here.

The Y. M. C. A. have published their annual statement which makes a creditable showing. The receipts were $1705.87, and the expenditure $1705.75, leaving a balance of 12 cents to the good.

A wrestling tournament has been arranged to take place in the rooms of the Athletic club on Saturday, Sept. 21.

The work of opening up the Alexandra mine is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

A meeting of the Hornets takes place this evening, when the club will be reorganized.

A Mongolian and his woman have been arrested on a charge of vagrancy, the arrest rising out of a complaint made by the Chinese missionary that the woman was being used for immoral purposes. Both parties were before Judge Crease about six months ago on a similar charge. They came here from Victoria about three weeks since.

Provincial Constable Stephenson, whose serious accident while driving yesterday has aroused so much commiseration, was reported to be somewhat easier this morning.

The Nanaimo Indians have laid complaint with W. H. Lomas, Indian agent, that the dumping of offal and debris on Needham street, near their reserve, is a menace to the health of the camp. This is rather turning the tables on the city fathers. Mr. Lomas will send an official report to the city council at the next meeting.

Dr. Walkem, who returned from the Alexandra mine this afternoon, states that a heavy consignment of rails has just been received there, a fact which seems to indicate that work will shortly be pushed forward energetically.

MIDWAY.

Midway, Kettle River, Sept. 1.—No little excitement and enthusiasm has been raised in Midway and among the miners of Boundary mountain by the proposed erection of a smelter here. The necessary papers have all been signed and final arrangements made for putting in a 50-ton plant by a syndicate of Chicago capitalists, which is represented by Mr. S. S. Fowler, M. E., of Chicago. Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Fairview, has also been considerably interested in bringing about this much desired result. Mr. Fowler has been in this section since the early spring, going over the Boundary Mountain camps and making a thorough inspection of all the mineral claims in this district, and he is so well pleased with all he saw that he entered into negotiations for the erection of a smelter here, and work will be commenced within 90 days. It is not definitely known to outsiders, but it is generally understood that 50 acres of land bordering on Boundary Creek will be deeded to the company on the completion of the smelter, and besides that the townsite company are said to be willing to give a fair share. There can be no doubt that, with the vast ore bodies in this section, some of which are so great that their full extent has not yet been determined, with good coal in the near vicinity, and Midway's central location to all, a smelter properly run would be a money-making institution.

The school house for Midway is now under construction and will be ready for occupation sometime this month.

In the Last Chance mine, owned by the Last Chance Mining Company of Spokane, very rich ore has been struck on the 60 foot level, and the work of development will be prosecuted vigorously this fall.

Mr. W. T. Smith, representing the Parrott Smelting Company, of Butte, Mont., is working two shifts on the Stemwinder, Greenwood Camp. The shaft is now down 100 feet and the ore is improving with depth.

Four miles north of Midway two claims were located by Mr. Myers and Mr. Morris some two weeks ago. After sinking through a small iron capping rich ore was struck. Mr. Myers had an assay made at a depth of ten feet, and the result gave $100 to the ton. Mr. G. B. McAulay and others made locations here some years ago, but abandoned them without doing any work.

On the Winnipeg claim, Greenwood Camp, discovered by Mr. McIntosh in May, a 60-foot shaft has been sunk. Assays made at different times of ore from this claim vary from $20 to $708 to the ton in gold, and also showing a fair percentage of copper. For the present work has been stopped on this claim.

The owners of Knob Hill and Ironsides claims have finished work for this year, and had the claims surveyed, and are now applying for crown grants.

JOE.

Midway Advance.

Prospectors are now beginning to leave Deadwood. Practically all the ground is staked.

It is reported that a rich strike has been made on the Snowshoe.

Herbert Shaw has located a fine property on the North Fork. The ledge, which is well mineralized, is no less than 150 feet wide.

Messrs. Wood and Stack, who have been in Boundary part of the summer, located the other day a capital copper property near Mackay Ingrim's ranch.

Mr. Elliott, of Fairview, made a shipment of three tons of the Smuggler ore a short time ago to the Tacoma smelter, which returned him a profit of nearly $450.

An enormous fire is raging somewhere in the vicinity of the Wellington camp, and it is feared that it will pass through Greenwood, unless we have rain at once.

From an acre of land Mr. Jackson hauled no less than six heavy loads of oat hay. No bad record this, and a proof that farming in the vicinity of Midway can be made to pay well.

A full force of men are again working on the Cariboo, Camp McKinney, and the 200-foot shaft which the Boston-Butte company has stipulated should be sunk before they purchased the property will now very shortly be finished. Mr. G. B. McAulay was in Midway last Tuesday, and was asked whether the deal had gone through. He replied that the matter was still pending, but that a decision would no doubt be reached ere long.

Mr. Brown has just returned from the Similkameen where he has been for some time. He brought with him some beautiful specimens of copper ore which came from his wonderful claim, the Copper Mountain. On this claim there are two shafts, one 26 and the other 50 feet deep. The capping is gray lime, which, when removed, discloses rich peacock copper ore, and again beneath this copper is present in the form of copper glance. It is said, although perhaps it should be taken cum grano salis, that the ore runs 70 per cent. in copper.

Jimmy Schofield has sent two very fine specimens of the No. 7 to Mr. McMynn for the mining bureau in Victoria. The specimens were taken 50 feet from the surface, and are fair samples of the ore now to be seen at the bottom of the shaft. The assays show 122 ounces in silver and ¾ of an ounce gold. An old mining man from the Slocan examined the rock and declared it was as fine a piece of dry ore as he had seen anywhere. There is just enough iron to make it smelt easily.

A model is on exhibition of a new tug steamer which Captain J. R. Buchanan is to build for service on Kootenay Lake. The hull will be built in Kaslo and the machinery, which is entirely new, will come from Ontario. The new vessel will be 90 feet long on deck, and will be neatly fitted up. It is expected that she will not only prove powerful, but a "flyer" as well.

A fire started in a pile of cordwood near Cottonwood-Smith creek, about 3 miles south of Nelson, has damaged the road to the mines on Toad Mountain by burning bridges and cribbing. A woodchopper was arrested for setting fire to the cordwood, and on Wednesday the hearing was postponed until to-day, when the case was dismissed for want of evidence. The loss by the fire will not be less than $5000, the bulk of which will fall on the Hall Mines, limited.

Chief Engineer Cambie, of the Pacific division of the Canadian Pacific, is in Nelson, where one of his engineers has been for several weeks running a line between Nelson and Five Mile Point. If it is possible for the Canadian Pacific to get a line to Five Mile Point without interfering with the track of the Nelson & Fort Sheppard railway, the latter will not be allowed to get access to the water front at Nelson; if it is not possible, then it will be. Thus it is seen how railway corporations ignore the rights of the people of the town when the people are governed by men who are simply abject agents of corporations, as are the men who make up the present government of British Columbia.

VERNON.

Vernon News.

Robert Wright, of Lansdowne, while in a fit of melancholy took a dose of poison, which proved fatal.

Coyotes are reported more than usually numerous this season.

It has been resolved by the farmers of Spallumcheen and Okanagan, in view of the low price of wheat, to organize a joint stock company to establish a flouring mill. It is stated that $10,000 has already been subscribed, and the project seems likely to succeed.

John McKinnon, accused of cattle stealing, has been committed for trial.

Some very respectable bags were made at the opening of the shooting season, though grouse and prairie chicken are hardly as easy to get in the immediate vicinity of the city as was formerly the case.

Under the date of August 30th, a circular letter to C. P. R. agents has been issued by Mr. Wm. Brown, assistant general freight agent, which makes a considerable reduction in carload rates on grain, feed, hay, and vegetables to Kootenay points.

Mr. A. L. Fortune, of Enderby, has no reason to complain of his wheat crop this year. One field of fall wheat containing 80 acres, averaged a little over 60 bushels to the acre—not a bad yield even for this favored valley. He has finished threshing and has hauled all his wheat to the Enderby mill, having disposed of it to that company.

Messrs. C. F. Costerton and L. Simmons have staked off two claims on a new mineral discovery near the B. X. ranch. The rock appears to be free milling gold quartz of promising quality, and is also thought to contain copper and silver. A sufficient amount of work will at once be done to obtain an idea as to the value of the discovery, and assays will also be obtained of the ore. The claims are named respectively the White Elephant and Bon Diable.

COMOX.

Union News.

On Thursday McQuillan & Gilmore, of Courtenay, were returning from the wharf with two teams well loaded with provisions and some passengers. A large tree was noticed by one of the party falling over their heads, and everybody made a spring for his life. Mr. McPhee landed in the ditch and Road Boss Berkeley on top of McQuillan. The tree fell upon the wagon, breaking off a hind wheel and scattering flour and provisions. The horses started at top speed and could not be stopped before reaching the dyke. It was a narrow escape from a violent death.

DEFENDER IS VICTORIOUS

The American Wins the First Race After Hope Had Been Abandoned.

Full Details of the Contest—Cycling, Football and Other Sports.

Highlands off Navesink, Sept. 7.—A dark cloudy sky frowned over a leaden sea at six o'clock this morning as the challenger for the America's cup, Lord Dunraven's Valkyrie III, and the gallant champion in its defense, America's Defender, rolled and pitched all the morning in the the Horshoe, inside Sandy Hook.

From Highlands the two rival sloops looked like grayhounds held in leash, eager to dash forward, longing for a test of speed and endurance. The eyes of the world were upon them, for the Associated Press arrangements to cover the race were so complete that not a move on board could be missed.

From every point early this morning were reported the weather conditions prevailing in their immediate vicinity, and summed up they announced a cloudy sky with prospects of rain showers, not severe enough, however, to interfere with the racing. The wind was about east by north, and had been blowing at the rate of from 10 to 14 knots throughout the night. Outside Sandy Hook a pretty good sea was running, consequently, should the wind hold from the eastward, the yachts will start on the fifteen mile course along the Long Island coast and then run home.

The weather at long Branch at 8 a.m. was cloudy and showery, with the wind blowing about ten miles an hour. A pretty heavy, though smooth, sea is running and there is a slight fog. Sandy Hook reports showery weather with slight fog and wind northeast, about ten miles an hour.

The prospects are that the racers will have to beat out the Long Island coast in threatening weather, in a heavy swell and not too strong a breeze, with prospects of an increase in strength for the run home. There are also indications of stormy weather but the weather does not appear to have settled.

Highlands off Navesink, 9 a.m.—Defender and Valkyrie are both in tow, and are making for Sandy Hook.

Sandy Hook, 10 a.m.—A sloop yacht has just run ashore on the Hook and the sea is breaking over her.

Scotland Lightship, 10.20 a.m.—Wind N. E., blowing at the rate of only six miles an hour, there is still quite a swell on and the prospects for good racing very slim at present. At 10.45 Defender hove to about half a mile north of the lightship, Valkyrie not far behind her. Soon afterwards both yachts made for the neighborhood of the starting line and began hoisting their club topsails.

On board the S. S. Mackay-Bennett, off Sandy Hook, 11.35.—The Luchenbach has signalled that the start will be made from Scotland Lightship.

Highlands, off Navesink, 11:58 a.m.—The preparatory signal has been hoisted. The course will be E. by S. from Normande by the sea.

The yachts started at 12:20, the Valkyrie crossing the line at 12:20, 05, the Defender 5 seconds later.

12:30 p.m.—Both Defender and Valkyrie are standing away to the northeast on the starboard tack. The Valkyrie appears to be increasing her lead on the Defender. Both yachts are carrying mainsails, club topsails, stays, jibs, and jib topsails. The excursion fleet is hampering the yachts badly, and the racers are picking their way through the accompanying fleet. The Valkyrie is about 200 yards ahead of the Defender, and seems to be gaining constantly. The defender at 12:37 was cutting down the Valkyrie's lead, and had the best of the breeze, after having cleared the excursion fleet.

12:45.—The Valkyrie is pointoing higher; she appears to be leading and is heading north. The pleasure fleet are heading directly toward Sandy Hook lightship, the wind freshening. The Valkyrie seems to be out footing and out pointing the Yankee. Valkyrie is leading by 1 1-4 lengths.

Far Rockaway, 12:15.—The Valkyrie when she came about on the port tack, was ahead and to windward, and compels the Defender to go under her lee. The Defender apparently outfooted the Valkyrie after going round, as far as could be seen her. The stakeboat is steaming ahead of the yachts, laying out the course, fifteen miles to windward. The Valkyrie still continues to widen the distance.

1 p.m.—The Valkyrie is well to windward and well ahead. Both boats are on the port tack, with the breeze rather fluky.

1:2 p.m.—Both yachts are in the same position, the Valkyrie increasing her lead and staying closer to windward.

1:15 p.m.—Both yachts have gone about on the starboard tack, with their smallest baby jib topsails set, the other sails the same as before. The Valkyrie is still in the lead by about five lengths.

1:20 p.m.—After an hour's racing the English boat leads by a quarter of a mile. The Britisher has her big baby jib topsail, while the Defender has only her ordinary jib topsails. The wind is freshening, and both yachts are standing S. by E., close hauled. It seem as it the Defender's jib top is heading her off, as it is evident she does not bear the wind as well as the Valkyrie, which is pointing higher. The patrol boats by this time seem to have succeeded in keeping the excursionists away from the racers.

1:43 p.m.—The breeze is freshening a little, and it is now six miles an hour, and the prospects for an increase have improved. There is no decided change in the position of the yachts; the Valkyrie is still leading but does not seem to point so well. According to experts here the Valkyrie will have quite a lead at the turn if she continues to gain as she now appears to be doing, in spite of the fact that the Defender has footed much faster and higher recently than at any other time during the race.

1:50 p.m.—Valkyrie is still half a mile ahead.

Far Rockaway, 2 p.m.—The yachts have crossed each other, and the Valkyrie is still considerably in the lead.

2:05.—The yachts had split tacks. The Valkyrie taking the starboard leg. They look to be still half a mile apart.

2:12 p.m.—The Valkyrie is well ahead, both yachts on the starboard tack, nearly 3-4 of a mile apart. The yachts are falling from sight out to sea. They have covered about 12 miles.

2:30 p.m.—The boats are still on the same course, with the Valkyrie apparently widening the distance. The haze has left and the boats are entirely clear of the fleet.

2:55 p.m.—The Valkyrie eased off and is getting ready to turn the stake boat, and immediately squared about for the run home.

At 3:45 the Valkyrie was still ahead, carying her balloon jib topsail and perceptibly increasing her lead. The wind had dropped to about 4 knots, which rendered it doubtful if the boats could finish in the time allowed. A thick haze sprang up shortly after 4 o'clock, which at a quarter to 5 was too dense to enable the onlookers to distinguish the boats, but along about the hour the wind showed signs of freshening, and the boats were seen running along at a great rate under their balloon jib topsails. They were then only a short distance apart.

At 5:13 the form of a big sloop could be made out about half a mile from the finishing line, with a second yacht half a mile astern, but it was impossible to distinguish them from each other. The excursion fleet clustered around the line preparing to salute the winner, and great was the surprise of all when the Defender loomed up, crossing the line at 5:20:57.

Where and how she crossed the Valkyrie is at present a mystery. The Valkyrie finished at 5:28:27. This makes the Defender winner by nearly 8 minutes, including her time allowance. The official time has not yet been made known.

Betting on the race was brisk, 5 to 3 or 3 to 2 was offered on the Defender, while the backers of Valkyrie asked 2 to 1.

BASEBALL.

To the Editor:—Mr. Oliver, secretary of the Nanaimo Baseball Club, has a letter in this morning's Colonist which, no doubt unintentionally, is calculated to mislead the public respecting the condition of affairs existing between the teams composing the British Columbia league. Mr. Oliver may feel easy on two points. Firstly, the Amities have no desire of settling the championship by newspaper controversy; secondly, although there may be an idea among the members of the Nanaimo club that they are very formidable and almost unconquerable, the Victoria team, instead of wishing in any way to shirk a contest with Nanaimo, are prepared to meet the aggregation from the latter city, as soon as the Vancouver and Nanaimo clubs have definitely decided whether the game played at Nanaimo on August 3rd was an exhibition or a league contest. The Vancouver secretary, Mr. G. L. Fowler, in a letter already published in the Times, stated emphatically that the game of Aug 3 was not a league contest. Vancouver and Nanaimo clubs must settle this question between them before the latter team can claim any right to meet the Amities in a series of games for the championship. It certainly comes with very poor grace for Mr. Oliver to accuse the Amities of attempting to shirk a game, when the Amities were prepared to meet Nanaimo on Labor day, and the Nanaimo team failed to put in an appearance.

If Mr. Oliver will consult his schedule card, he will find that Nanaimo should have played in Vancouver on August 17 and, therefore, Vancouver was not in default by failing to visit Nanaimo on that date. S. D. SHULTZ, Manager Victoria Amity B. B. C.

THE WHEEL.

A BIG CONTRACT.

Toronto, Sept. 5.—At 2:37 p.m. to-day Ferdinand Shobel, the long distance French champion, commenced his 1000 mile ride against time on the quarter mile board track on Toronto Island. He had made an open challenge for a 1000 mile race which had been accepted by Seavey, of Boston, and Weinig, of Buffalo, but neither of these men showed up when the race began. Shobel started alone, unpaced, and will attempt to beat Grimm's 24 hour record of 452 miles, and other records up to 1000 miles. He is in splendid condition, and will do his 24 hours without dismounting. He started off easily. His time at 10 miles was 30:52 2-5, and in the first hour he rode 21⅝ miles. For 50 miles his time was 2:30:54, and for the 100 miles 5:12:30-2-5. These are unpaced records.

Toronto, Sept. 7.—Ferdinand Shobel, the French long distance champion, who is riding for a thousand miles unpaced record here, is still pegging away at his big task. In the first 24 hours he covered 380¾ miles. He would have ridden considerably more than 400 miles had it not been for the slippery nature of the board track during the night. A heavy dew fell upon it, making it almost impossible to hold. Shobel fell repeatedly during the night, scraping himself badly several times, but he pluckily remounted and continued his lonely ride. In the early morning he improved in his speed, reeling off some 20 miles at better than a three-minute clip. He was off his wheel for the first time at 160¾ miles. He was off again at 9 o'clock yesterday morning for 28 minutes, and at the completion of the first 24 hours he rested 23 minutes. He was off at 10:30 last night for 15 minutes, when he ate supper. His time for the 400 miles was 25 hours 12 minutes, and for 450 miles, 29 hours 42 minutes.
